 Life is but a dream

* Can be sung in a round where one group is starting measure 1 when another group is starting measure 5.

From Wikipedia:

The lyrics have often been used as a metaphor for life's difficult choices and many see the boat as one's self. Rowing is a skillful practice that takes perfection and directs the boat. The idea of a stream suggest boundaries in the path of choices. Challenges should be greeted in stride while being open to joy. "Life is but a dream" suggests that troubles will one day be viewed in the context of dream once one has become awakened.
